1. STAFF REPORTS / ITEMS REQUIRING IMMEDIATE ATTENTION

To: Gail Kirk
From: Gwen Hicks
CC: Steve Arant, Kenneth Schwab, Krista Flasch, Jennifer Hools
Subject: Streets and Stormwater Department
Date: September 14, 2017

Please include this item in your notes to council for the next meeting:

- ⇒ Street and Stormwater Department will be starting a mill and overlay project on September 19th in Lancaster Park Addition. The work in this addition has been divided into three phases due to size of the subdivision and due to the weather restraints that limits the amount of work that can reasonably be completed before the end of this asphalt season. The phase one limits of work will be the most southern part of the subdivision defined by streets identified as Yellowwood, College, Broadway, Aster Commercial and Butternut. Phase two and three are scheduled to start the early part of next year.

Broken Arrow Mayor receives OAAE Art Star Award

Award honors mayors who support art in their communities

Broken Arrow, Okla. (9/13/2017) – Broken Arrow Mayor Craig Thurmond today received the Oklahoma Alliance for Arts Education’s (OAAE) annual Mayor’s Art Star Award at an Oklahoma Municipal League breakfast in downtown Tulsa.

The OAAE Art Star Awards Program honors a mayor who has demonstrated exemplary support for the arts in city or town. It’s an opportunity to celebrate arts accomplishments in a community.

Along with the Broken Arrow City Council, Thurmond gives ongoing support to arts programs and events in the City hosted by various individuals and organizations throughout the year.

The City actively promotes local arts events, including the upcoming “Chalk It Up” pavement drawing competition on Main Street to the “Thursday Night Live” summer music series hosted by the Broken Arrow Chamber of Commerce at the City’s Rose District Pavilion. The Rose District Pavilion is one of the many quality of life projects made possible by Vision 2025 surplus funds. A Creative Arts Center has been partially funded by the City and is presently being designed.

This year, with the leadership of Mayor Thurmond, the City launched one of its first public art programs downtown – utility box art. The Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) partnered with local artists to produce vinyl art wraps for utility boxes in the Rose District.

The City and CVB also work to promote The Broken Arrow Performing Arts Center, which opened in 2009 and has attracted multiple national acts and celebrity performers to Broken Arrow. Each summer, Broadway star and BA native Kristin Chenoweth hosts the annual Broadway Bootcamp for high school students at the BA PAC.

About the Oklahoma Alliance for Arts Education

The mission of the Oklahoma Alliance for Arts Education is to promote the values of the arts through education and recognition of individuals and organizations. The OAAE believes the study of the arts is essential to the basic education of all students. When students experience the creative arts process on a regular basis, they learn new skills and thought processes. Learning in the arts encourages the development

3. SPECIAL EVENTS / ACTIVITIES

POW/MIA Recognition Day

We cordially invite you to join with us on the Military History Center's Memorial Flag Plaza at 11:00 on Saturday, September 16 to recognize our POW and MIAs and honor them for their service and sacrifices in the fight for freedom.

Come out with your children and grandchildren and meet Vietnam War MIA families and POWs from World War II and the Korean War.

Join us and Rolling Thunder Oklahoma in dedicating the MHC's Memorial to Oklahoma's Vietnam War MIAs and in celebrating the repatriation of the remains of Col. Martin Scott of Jenks, who went missing in Vietnam in 1966.

We will have patriotic music by former Miss Tulsa, Maggie Bond, as well as Broken Arrow High School JROTC cadets, Patriot Guard Riders and more.

This is truly a patriotic event you won't want to miss.

The Military History Center will be offering free admission. If you haven't visited the Museum, here's your chance. Call the MHC at 918-794-2712 for more information.
